The P. & O. steamer Lombardy, from Bouton, left Singapore yesterday at 6 a.m.

H.M.S. Rattler arrived here yesterday morning from Hulow, and H.M.S. Wunderle left for Java.

The Chinese squadron, consisting of five cruisers under Admiral W. M. Lang, arrived here yesterday from Macao.

The Agents (Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Co.) inform us that the steamer George, from Antwerp and London, left Singapore for this port on Monday.

The P. & O. steamer Eschita, which left yesterday morning from Boulton, of which we have been conteinously favoured with copy, states that a depression exists in the Pacific to the S.E. of Luxor.

Her Majesty the Empress Dowager announces in an Imperial Decree, dated the 1st of the 3rd moon, that H. H. Lin Ming-chuan, Governor of Formosa, has been created a member of the Board of Admiralty.

The Japan Mail says that an interesting object was found the day before by the workmen engaged in dredging the Kaimon River. It was an image of Shoden in pure gold, about 18 inches high, enclosed in a red lacquer shrin, the whole wrapped in brocade.

The construction of a new steel cruiser for the Japanese navy has been commenced at Yokosuka.
The vessel, which will be known as the Asahi, will be 8,000 indicated-H.P., 91 meters length on the vertical line, 13 meters width, 4.5 meters beam, average draught of 17 ft. 5 9/16 in., and will steam 15 knots.

The German mail steamers are no longer to come up to their old mooring place opposite the Company's Office on the French Bund, Shanghai.
The Managers of the Company have sent out from the Directors of Bremen that the Company's steamers are no longer to run the risk of descending to the upper reaches of the Whangpoo. Accordingly the agents have applied to the Harbour Master for a buoy in the lower reach, opposite the China Merchants' lower wharf, which has not been settled so far that they can get a buoy there. Carefully, in any case, the instruction to the Captain is to proceed as far as the necessity of cancelling or suspending his certificate, and therefore orders to the Court to do so accordingly. The Court does not make any order on the third finding. The expenses of the Court are fixed at eleven pounds eight shillings sterling.
